

WRITING A GROCERY SHOPPING LIST ESL

A collection of ESL, EFL downloadable, printable worksheets, practice exercises and activities to teach about shopping, list, shopping list. Then they write the list of food she and her father are going to buy in the supermarket on the.

If the shop assistant doesn't have the item, the customer goes and finds the right shop. The first player puts down one of their dominoes on either side of the domino on the table, making sure that the sentence halves go together to form a sentence or question by a shop assistant or customer, e. The customers then go around to each shop and try to buy the items on their shopping list. Nancy: Do we need any tomatoes or garlic? Afterwards, students present their dialogues to the class and feedback is given. At the cheese counter and deli section again an assistant will serve you. Doing the activities on this page will help you learn the new words about shopping in a supermarket. Next, the students are divided into pairs A and B. After the answers have been checked, students use the language from the worksheet in a shopping dialogue. Describe what is happening in the picture, and you can also say what you think might happen next or what has just finished happening. A: Just go and make a list for me, please. The shopping list shows details of the preferred items the customers want to buy and their total budget. Working together, the students invent and write down clues for the shops on their crossword, e. Working alone, the students read the definitions on the worksheet and write the correct shopping vocabulary in the spaces provided. When the students have finished, the pairs role-play their conversation in front of the class and feedback is given. The aim of the activity is for the shoppers to save the most money possible by finding out the cost of each item on their shopping list in the four shops and buying each item from the cheapest place. When the students have finished, they present their role-plays to the class and feedback is given. Shopping Dominoes ESL Shopping Dialogue Activity - Reading and Matching - Pre-intermediate - 20 minutes In this rewarding teaching activity, students play a game of dominoes where they build a clothes shop conversation between a shop assistant and customer by matching sentence halves together. What can you buy? The students then practice the three shopping conversations with a partner. B: Why don't you just get the basics? There is some cheese and some pasta noodles. Just keep the most important parts of the original and use new words. B: Why don't you go and check the refrigerator? Can I help you? The other players then take it in turns to match their dominoes in the same way by putting them down at either end of the domino chain. The students begin by sorting three mixed-up clothes shop dialogues into conversation one, two and three. Dialogue: Charles and his wife are making a list for the supermarket. A: What do you mean? When the customer has the shopping item, they return to their group and the second customer goes off in search of the next item on the list. If not, their partner continues to give more clues until the student is able to guess the word. A: I'm going to go shopping for groceries in a little bit.